DISCOVER How to Make Acorn Bread

Following Multiple-Step Instructions

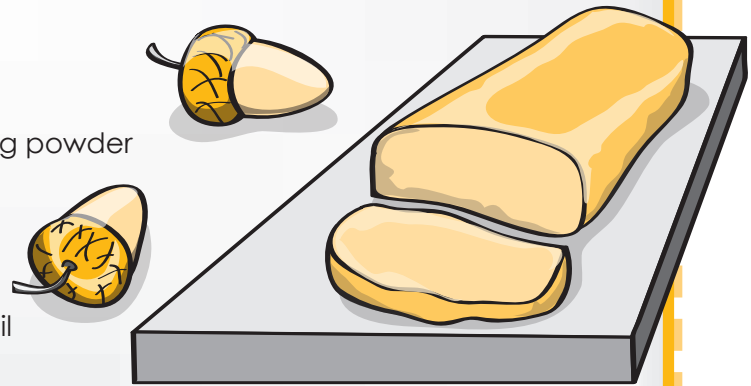

The Chumash Indians enjoyed making acorn flatbread. They gathered the acorns that grew on the oak trees. They prepared a bunch of these acorns by grinding them into a meal. The mush was cooked over the fire until it became a cracker-like bread.

Today, you can buy the acorn meal at a grocery store. You can follow this recipe to make acorn bread. The acorn bread no longer has to be cooked over a fire. It can be cooked in an oven. Try making acorn bread! Acorn bread is a delicious and healthy treat!

How to Make Acorn Bread

What you Need:

- 1 cup acorn meal
- 1 cup flour
- 2 tablespoons baking powder

DISCOVER Where My Global Friend Nanji Lives

Using Correct Punctuation and Capitalization

- ✓ Put a comma between a city and state or a city and country.
- ✓ Names of cities, countries, and continents begin with a capital letter.

The following is a rough draft of a student's report. It contains errors.

Have you ever visited the continent of Africa? My friend Nanji lives in Nairobi Kenya. Nairobi is the capital city of Kenya. The country of Kenya is on the continent of Africa. The name "Nairobi" can be translated as "the place of cool waters." The main languages spoken in Nairobi are Swahili and English.

My friend Nanji speaks both Swahili and English. He says "habari" in Swahili and "hello" in English to greet his friends. Nanji sent me some interesting photos of the african city of Nairobi. The city is very modern. There are large office buildings, shopping centers, and museums. Nanji likes to visit Snake Park which is near the national museum. Snake Park is the home of over 100 reptiles. Nanji is not afraid of the poisonous snakes. The snakes cannot attack him. All the snakes are in glass cages. Snake Park also has a lake full of Nile crocodiles and fish.

Just outside the city of Nairobi, Nanji can see real giraffes walking on the grass. It is an exciting adventure to visit Giraffe Manor. He feeds the giraffes with his own hands. He also likes to visit the elephant orphanage. Baby elephants that have lost their mothers live in the orphanage. They remain at the orphanage until they are old enough to be released back into the jungle.
